

Jeremy Crane, Baldwin, ND, the 2005 Champion, is shown here accepting the traditional 30 X 30 rifle from Larry Gjermundson, representing Farm Credit Services of Mandan, donors of the gun. The beautiful trophy saddle made by Trent Taylor of Sidney, MT, and donated by Rollin' Rock Angus, Gartner-Denowh Angus, Ryan Oberfell Ranch, Albin's Custom Harvesting and Finnicum's Combining, all of Sidney, MT, is also pictured. It is only the second year a trophy saddle has been given. This is Jeremy's second win at Champions Ride. He took home the honors in 1998 as well. (Chris Doll Rodeo Photo)

HOME ON THE RANGE WOULD LIKE TO RECOGNIZE ITS RODEO COMMITTEE FOR ALL ITS HARD WORK IN PUTTING ON CHAMPIONS RIDE -- WE COULDN'T DO IT WITHOUT YOU!

Our Cowboy and Final Bronc Sponsors are vital to the financial success of our rodeo. Each year we try to add a little more exposure for them for their advertising dollar. This year, the cowboys wore the name of their sponsor in place of a number on their backs. We thank them for their generous support! (Jolene Obrigewitch Photo)

Wayne Wise, Kersey, CO, professional rodeo announcer deluxe, kept the crowd informed, educated and totally entertained throughout the afternoon. Sponsored by Dakota Community Bank, Wise is a well-known radio and television personality, as well as a familiar voice for both the PRCA and the PBR. (Chris Doll Rodeo Photo)

The HOTR Rodeo Committee seeks sponsors for all the rodeo personnel to help keep expenses down. Our pick up men were sponsored this year by First International Bank & Trust (Watfprd City, ND) and Busch Agricultural Resources, Inc. (Sidney, MT). (Chris Doll Rodeo Photo)

A special "Thank You" to ND Pharmacy for donating their winnings in the Cowboy Sponsor Pool back to Home On The Range. Your generosity is greatly appreciated!
